

More COVID-19 financial relief announced for affected SA businesses

The South Australian State Government has announced further financial assistance for businesses that have experienced a significant decline as a result of ongoing COVID-19 restrictions. It comes on top of the \$3,000 emergency payments announced during the recent state-wide lockdown.

The package will be jointly funded by the Commonwealth and State Governments and will consist of:

- An additional $3,000 for employers and $1,000 for non-employing businesses that have experienced a decline in turnover of 30% or more over a two week period as a result of trading restrictions introduced from 28th July 2021; and
- An additional amount of $1,000 for businesses operating in the CBD, in recognition of the extra impact on city businesses of people working from home.

There is also a new grant of up to $25,000 available for organisers of eligible events that have been either cancelled or suffered a serious financial loss as a consequence of the July lockdown, or the restrictions that followed up to 4th August.

Applications for this new assistance will open 13th August and will close on 17th October 2021.
